REFORM FOR JUDICIARY

Is Being Considered by Committee—Prof. Elson Complains of Appointments.

Columbus, Jan. 23.—The Constitutional convention dropped down to deliberate work on the proposals for the new constitution.

With 57 proposed amendments in the hands of the committees half a dozen or more important committees began actual consideration of the measures.

Regarding the result of the action of Hiram D. Peck of Hamilton county, chairman of the committee on judiciary and bills of rights, he announced the plan to be urged in his committee will be for it to frame the proposal to go before the committee in its class. The committee has 13 proposals which it is stated will be used chiefly as guides. An almost complete reform of the judiciary system is being considered by the committee according to the chairman who has started the preliminary outline of such a reform.

E. W. Doty of Cuyahoga will organize the taxation committee today and within the next few days, he stated, the work of laying a new foundation for the state taxation law will be started.

The question of economy in the convention arose suddenly today and occupied most of the morning's session. It was presented by Delegate Doty who presented a resolution to transfer a stenographer from the secre-

UNREASONABLE PROFITS

Made on Iron Ore by Merger

Washington, Jan. 23.—Unreasonable profits are made on iron ore of the lake region, excessive earnings flow into the treasury of the United States Steel Corporation from its ore transportation facilities which suggest the necessity, from the standpoint of public policy, of segregating the ore railroads from the giant corporation, and large inter-company profits are made by consolidated ore, iron and steel companies, according to a preliminary report on the cost of production in the steel industry by Herbert Knox Smith, commissioner of corporations, made public last night.

The report was presented to President Taft and sent to the house committee on ways and means for consideration in connection with the proposed revision of the steel tariff schedule, upon which the Democrats will caucus today.

"The prices of lake ore," the report declares, "have been kept for many years at an unreasonably high level, compared with the cost of production and the cost of investment in the producing ore properties."

In connection with the alleged profits realized by the Steel Corporation from its ores, the commissioner says that the control of public agencies for transportation carries with it such possibilities of abuse that the question is raised "whether the public interest in this industry does not require a segregation of the ore railroads from the Steel Corporation."

The report is based on an investigation of two-thirds of the country's production of iron and steel from 1902 to 1906, inclusive. Limited data for 1907 to 1910, Mr. Smith adds, makes it clear that these five-year figures substantially represent present conditions also.

In so far as the Steel Corporation "enjoys monopolistic power," the report states, it lies chiefly in its holdings of ore and its railroad transportation facilities. This company, the report declares, has acquired unduly large ore reserves, holding at the close of 1910 at least fifty years' supply at the present rate of consumption, exclusive of the Great Northern ore properties, the lease of which has been cancelled, effective Jan. 1, 1915.

It is estimated that the corporation has fully 1,200,000,000 tons of ore in the lake region.

The average cost of lake ore, generally delivered at lower lake ports, from 1902 to 1906, was $2.64 per ton. The average transfer profit on ore was 66 cents per ton. This is regarded as excessive by the commissioner, representing, in his judgment, from 10 to 15 per cent on the investment, "with the presumption in favor of the higher rate, and including earnings on the large ore reserve."

The private car was cut in two and all of the occupants were penned in their berths and scalded by escaping steam and hot water until dug out by the crews of the two trains. They were hurried in a special train to the general hospital here, where Hayes and Keely soon died.

Mrs. Vogel was said to be in a critical condition and three other minstreels were reported to be in a serious condition through having inhaled steam.

The wreck is believed to have been caused either by a misunderstanding of orders or the block signals failing to work, and a searching investigation to determine the responsibility was ordered by the public service commission.

TWO MEMBERS OF VOGEL MINSTRELS DEAD IN WRECK

Binghamton, N. Y., Jan. 23.—Two men were so badly injured that they died shortly afterward in a local hospital and a dozen others were hurt, one woman probably fatally, when a passenger train on the Syracuse division of the Lackawanna railroad crashed into the rear of a Utica division train which was standing at the Chenango Forks station. All of the injured were in the private car of the Vogel Minstrel company, which was being hauled from Norwich to Waterville, N. Y.

The deceased, H. C. Hayes, Indianapolis; George P. Keely, Claremont, New Hampshire.

Probably fatally hurt—Mrs. Vogel, wife of the proprietor of the minstrel show.

SHOOTING AT FOREIGN BOARDING HOUSE MAY RESULT IN A MURDER

John Chirilo, aged about 30 years, a foreigner boarding at a place run by Todor Dabro, 39, another foreigner, at 309 Seroce avenue, Wehrle's Addition, was probably fatally shot by Dabro Monday night about 6 o'clock at the boarding house.

Chirilo is at the Sanitarium, where his condition is precarious, but the attending physician, Dr. Carl Dillon, says the man may recover, as wounds of this nature, particularly among the foreigners, are not necessarily followed by fatal results.

Whether the shooting was intentional or an accident is still in doubt though some of the witnesses to the affair state that it followed a quarrel in which Dabro ordered Chirilo from the place. It is claimed that when Chirilo refused to leave Dabro whipped out his revolver and fired.

Chirilo himself this morning told Dr. Dillon that the shooting was an accident. He stated that Dabro and himself were fooling with the weapon when it was discharged.

Dabro is a prisoner at the city prison, where he was taken a half hour after the shooting. He is held without bond to await the result of Chirilo's wound. If the victim survives the wound made by the bullet, Dabro will face a charge of murder in police court.

It was about 6.10 o'clock Monday night when Chief of Police Blizard was notified of the shooting by a neighbor, who said that a fight was in progress at Dabro's place and that a shot had been fired.

This was 25 minutes after the shot had been fired and the boarders in the house had not made any attempt to get a physician for Chirilo and none had called the police.

REPUBLICAN GOVERNOR SEEKS SENATE INVESTIGATION OF THE ELECTION OF TWO DEMOCRATIC SENATORS FROM WEST VIRGINIA

SEN. CLARENCE WATSON—SEN. WM. C. CINTON
The activity of Governor Glasscock, of West Virginia, a Republican, in his efforts to bring about a senate investigation of alleged irregularities in the election last winter of Senators Wm. E. Cinton and C. E. Watson, both Democrats, is believed in Washington to be destined to bring early results. The governor visited Washington recently, armed with a mass of evidence and complaints from many prominent citizens of the state.

BOARD OF TRADE BEGINS MEMBERSHIP CAMPAIGN YOU ARE ASKED TO JOIN

The Board of Trade today sent a circular letter to the 1911 members soliciting their renewal of membership for 1912. Post cards ready to sign were enclosed with the letters, which read as follows:

Dear Sir: Your membership in the Newark Board of Trade during the past year indicates your interest in the growth and improvement of Newark. While the Board of Trade may point with pardonable pride to its record in 1911, we all know that the real work is only beginning and at the same time we know that this work cannot be carried on successfully without a large, active and enthusiastic membership.

What was done in 1911 was worth while; was worth the price and the effort, but at only points the way. We need now a large, strong membership and the co-operation of every man in town who wants to see Newark advance.

The Board of Trade's slogan is "Boost Newark," and this can be done in various ways, not only by locating new industries and fostering those that are here, but by encouraging support of local merchants and mechanics, by insisting upon law enforcement, by urging civic improvement, and by changing "knockers" into "boosters."

The Board of Trade needs money to accomplish anything. Its sole source of revenue aside from personal contributions of citizens, is through its membership fee of $5.00 per annum.

As a member of this organization in 1911 we feel that it is not necessary to tell you why you should continue your membership. You yourself know that it is worth more than it costs you.

The following summary of the past year's work is offered as the reason for asking you to renew your membership for 1912:

1. Enrollment of 650 members.
2. Over 1300 wagon-loads of rubbish taken out of town on cleanup day, to which Frieel Chisel Bauch attributes the low fire loss of 1911.
3. "Be a Booster" posters printed and distributed.
4. Sixty miles of good roads contracted.
5. Successful campaign for new sidewalks.
6. Over 300 trees planted on Arbor Day.
7. Prizes given children for prettiest flower beds.
8. Possession of canal in Newark.
9. Passage of bill by legislature looking to establishment of children's playgrounds.
10. Nearly $600 subscribed for public library.
11. Improvement of court house park started.
12. Located Blank Auto-Tire factory.
13. Located Central City Castings Company.
14. Improved lighting of city, including a 450-lamp "Boost for Newark" sign, and illumination of court house dome by nearly 600 lamps.
15. Published 10,000 "Greater Newark" books.
16. Raised $1000 for Smith Shoe factory.
17. Secured passage of ordinances for the protection of local business men.

These are some of the things done in 1911. In this work the Board had the co-operation of the city officials and city council, the Teamsters' Union and the public-spirited citizens of Newark generally. Without such support nothing can be done. The Board was seriously hampered by lack of funds and the accomplishment of the Board in 1912 depends largely upon the support you and other citizens give.

The Board of Trade has just located the Advance Glass Company in Newark, and has other important matters under consideration. We want to finish the court house park improvement. The city council has just provided funds for caring for the park trees. We want the commissioners to improve the lighting and want to see other improvements made in Newark's "front yard."

The old gas plant at the Baltimore & Ohio station should be made into a park, we ought to get a good public library and a new hospital. We ought to encourage the officials in their determination to enforce the laws—in fact, there is an unlimited amount of work for this organization to do and it is up to you and other good citizens of Newark to say whether we shall attempt it.

In the face of serious obstacles and in spite of little working capital, something was accomplished last year. More can and will be done this year, if you and the others want it done.

You are asked now to sign the enclosed post card and mail it today. Please do it right now.

Yours truly,
THE NEWARK BOARD OF TRADE

These circular letters were sent to only those who were members of the organization in 1911. All other citizens are invited to join also. A coupon appears in this newspaper. Clip it out, sign and mail it to the Board of Trade if you please.

The arguments were completed in supreme court Tuesday morning. Attorney General Hagan and Prosecutor Turner urged that Diegel's conviction be affirmed, while Attorney Con J. Matern of Dayton and Charles E. Belcher and John A. Connor of Columbus pleaded for a reversal of the lower courts.

FIGHT TO BE MADE IN ALL OHIO DISTRICTS FOR ROOSEVELT DELEGATES

Columbus, Jan. 23.—There is no longer any reason to doubt the fact that a fight will be made in every Congressional District in Ohio for delegates to the Chicago National Republican convention who will vote for Theodore Roosevelt for President against William Howard Taft.

Last night Mr. Brown, returning to his duties in the Constitutional convention, emphasized the statement that he wished the present movement in Ohio divorced from any connection with a visit to Oyster Bay.

His position toward the Presidential nomination was made clear some months ago when he voiced the sentiment, which he asserts is growing, that Mr. Taft could not be re-elected if once more called to lead the Republican cause.

Because of this growth of feeling it was an absolute necessity that the Roosevelt movement should take on concrete form and resolve itself into a contest for delegates. His own disposition was then in politics not to take a passive part. In other words he was henceforth in the great game actively.

That within a few days headquarters will be established in this city from which the fight against the Taft lines will be directed, seems assured. Malcolm Kaishner, formerly secretary of the Republican State Central committee, and known as a leader of the organization in Franklin county and

AVIATOR JUMPED TO HIS DEATH

SPECTACULAR FLIGHTS

Had Been Made by Boy Who Had Displayed Dare-Devil Courage.

Los Angeles, Cal., Jan. 23.—Rutherford Page, 24 years of age, a graduate of Yale and a member of a wealthy New York family, who got an aviator's license last Saturday, flew in his professional capacity yesterday to his death on Dominguez Field, when at 4:10 o'clock he jumped from a Curtiss biplane, over which he had lost control, and dropped 50 feet to the ground.

The aeroplane was wrecked. It was a tragedy very different from that which, in popular terms, Page had pictured as his fate. About two weeks ago when he was a student in the Curtiss school at North Island, near San Diego, the young man said:

"If I am killed I want to be in full view of a grand stand packed with people after I have descended from a flight with my barograph showing that I have broken the world's altitude record."

It is doubtful if more than a few hundred saw the final fraction of his flight. Once more, as in the long list of tragedies of the air, the verdict "too daring" may be written across the somber scroll. Page's earlier performances promised him a head line as star of the meet.

A moment before the fall Page was circling from the course, having just passed before the grand stand, flying low and in a westerly direction. Beyond the row of hangars he swerved to the right, and climbed to a higher level, possibly 100 feet. He attempted to make a spectacular turn and the planes were tipped earthward to an angle of 75 degrees.

Page was unable to gain control of the machine, which started hurtling toward the earth. When within 50 feet of the ground he jumped and fell clear of the aeroplane, but, unfortunately, turned in the air and struck on his head.

Page's untimely death brought to a close a day of interest to the 10,000 spectators at the field. Within a few minutes after the opening of the program Bob St. Henry, a Curtiss flyer, wrecked his machine in making an abrupt landing. A minute later, Farnum Fish, the 17-year-old boy aviator, wrecked his machine in a like manner.

The program included a wedding in the aeroplane operated by Clifford Turpin. Neal Cochran and Leona Cowan were married while seated in Turpin's machine. Rev. E. H. Emmett performing the ceremony. Manager Dick Ferriss kissed the bride and immediately afterward the couple were taken on an aerial honeymoon trip by Turpin.

The first heat of the five-mile handicap was won by Page, who beat Beachey after a thrilling finish. The second heat was won by Parmelee. The third heat was not drawn off because of Page's death.

Among the other events of the day were mail carrying by Willard, bomb-throwing in which half a dozen aviators engaged, and exhibitions by Blanche Scott. A 25-mile wind from the west made flying hazardous in the afternoon.

FIRST FATALITY FOR 1912 IN AMERICAN AVIATION.

New York, Jan. 23.—Rutherford Page, who was killed at Los Angeles was the son of Mrs. William D. Page of 37 East Thirty-eighth street, this city. He graduated at Yale in 1910.

Page had done some practice flying at the aviation school at Nassau boulevard, Long Island, in a machine said to have been of his own construction.

Besides his mother, he leaves two sisters and two brothers. The Page residence was closed today.

Page's death is the first aviation fatality in this country in 1912, and is the one hundred and fourteenth in the world since actual flying began, nearly four years ago.

MUST SERVE TEN YEARS FOR CRIME

Columbus, Jan. 23.—William Simpson, alias Ed Kelly, and Andrew Ralph, two of the men indicted and convicted or having dynamited the safe of the Home Savings Bank at Metamora, O., and securing more than $2,500, must serve ten years in the penitentiary, according to a decision announced by the supreme court today. The crime was committed Nov. 7, 1911.

No Man is Stronger Than His Stomach

A strong man is strong all over. No man can be strong who is suffering from weak stomach with its consequent indigestion, or from some other disease of the stomach and its associated organs, which impairs digestion and nutrition. For when the stomach is weak or diseased there is a loss of the nutrition contained in food, which is the source of all physical strength. When a man "doesn't feel just right," when he doesn't sleep well, has an uncomfortable feeling in the stomach after eating, is languid, nervous, irritable and despondent, he is losing the nutrition needed to make strength.

Such a man should use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It enriches the blood, invigorates the liver, strengthens the kidneys, nourishes the nerves, and so gives health and strength to the whole body.

You can't afford to accept a secret nostrum as a substitute for this non-alcoholic medicine of known composition, not even though the urgent dealer may thereby make a little bigger profit. Ingredients printed on wrapper.

DEFENSE HAS INNING IN THE PULLMAN CASE

The Pullman company completed its testimony Monday evening in the suit brought before the United States Circuit court at Columbus against Col. Melville Gillett, Attorney Frederick Black and Ex-Sheriff Wm. Linke of this city, in a suit to recover $20,000 damages for the forcible detention of a palace car. The defense will probably conclude its testimony today, when the matter will be taken under advisement by the court. As before stated Attorneys Fitzgibbon & Montgomery are representing William Linke, while Kibler & Kibler are representing Gillett and Black. The Pullman company is represented by eastern and Ohio talent.

As is generally known the case arose from the alleged loss of some clothing belonging to Colonel Melville Gillett, from a Pullman car. Mr. Gillett brought suit in the Common Pleas court and an order of attachment was issued to Sheriff Linke. Linke went to the station where a train was standing with one of the cars of the Pullman company attached, and chained one of the cats to the rails. Afterwards he had the car removed to a side track where he had it chained to the rails, and where it has been ever since November, 1909.

to the scene of the trouble in the patrol wagon and found the foreigners in a highly excited frame of mind. Chirilo was lying on the floor in a semi-conscious condition. His pulse was very low and it was feared he would die before he reached the Sanitarium. A hurried investigation was made of the trouble and Dabro was placed under arrest.

According to the statement of the officers, Dabro was drunk and took the situation very coolly. He was either too drunk to talk intelligently of the affair or successfully feigned ignorance of sufficient English to tell the officers what had happened.

Chirilo was placed on the patrol stretcher and Dabro was placed in the wagon beside his victim and a hurry run was made for the Sanitarium. Preparations had been made to receive the patient and he was placed immediately upon the operating table.

Sisses, Dillon and Nye dressed the man's injury. It was found that the bullet had entered the lower left side of the abdomen, pierced the intestines in several places and lodged in the muscles of the back. No effort was made to locate the bullet, but the lacerations were cared for and the wound carefully dressed.

The man was in no condition last night to talk of the affair, but this morning, when visited by the physician, he stated that the shooting was the result of an accident.

Augustine Sisse, a Roumanian, visited the victim at the Sanitarium about 11 o'clock Monday morning and secured a statement from Chirilo regarding the shooting.

The wounded man's story is substantially as follows:

"The man who shot me was drunk. Some time before the shooting we were together in a room upstairs. He had a bottle of whisky, which was broken, the edges causing a cut on Dabro's arm. We dressed the cut and went to the lower floor to get our supper. In the kitchen I was making a settlement with Dabro and we had some trouble with John Udu. "After this I went into another

NO HEARTBURN DYSPEPSIA OR SICK STOMACH

The question as to how long you are going to continue a sufferer from Indigestion, Dyspepsia or Sick Stomach is merely a matter of time, soon you begin taking some Diapensin.

If your Stomach is lacking in digestive power, why not help the stomach to do its work, not with drastic drugs, but a re-enforcement of digestive agents, such as are naturally at work in the stomach.

People with weak stomachs should take a little Diapensin occasionally, and there will be no more indigestion, no feeling like a lump of lead in the stomach, no heartburn, sour risings, Gas on Stomach, or Belching of undigested food, Headaches, Dizziness or Sick Stomach, and, besides, what you eat will not ferment and poison your breath with nauseous odors. All these symptoms resulting from a sour, out-of-order stomach and dyspepsia are generally relieved in five minutes after taking a little Diapensin.

Go to your druggist and get a 50-cent box of Diapensin now, and you will always go to the table with a hearty appetite and what you eat will taste good, because your stomach and intestines will be clean and fresh, and you will know there are not going to be any more bad nights and miserable days for you. They freshen you and make you feel like life is worth living.

room on the first floor and Dabro followed. He had a gun in his hand and I caught hold of it. The weapon was turned toward my abdomen and while he had hold of it the weapon was discharged. I don't know whether he intended to shoot me or whether the shooting was an accident. We never had any other trouble.

A week ago Dabro had trouble with another boarder named Bode and wanted to shoot him. After the shooting I don't remember anything.

Chirilo then told Sisse that in case he died he wanted to send word to all his friends to forgive him for anything he may have done to them, as he forgave every one who had harmed him. He stated that he had $64 in the bank and drew a check to his cousin, Nick Poinin, with instructions to send the money to the old country in case he died. He is a member of the Roumanian Beneficial Society and was popular among the foreigners.

When Dabro was lodged at the city prison he seemed to regard the whole affair as a joke. He laughed about the shooting and asked the officers how much money it would take to get him out of jail. He stated that he did not like to stay in jail all night. At no time did he seem to realize the gravity of the situation.

When the officers first arrived at the boarding house, the gun with which the shooting was done could not be located. Finally, after much questioning, it was learned that Dabro went to an outhouse, where he threw away the weapon. Chief Blizard secured the weapon and used it as evidence against the prisoner if the case comes to trial.

This afternoon at the Sanitarium it was stated that Chirilo was in a fairly good condition, but that it was early yet to predict what the outcome of his wound would be.

ROOSEVELT DELEGATES

Columbus, has secured headquarters in the same office building which houses the pioneer Progressive Democratic Association and the Ohio Republican Progressive League. Today Mr. Karshner would only admit that the rooms had been secured for "committee purposes."

Again Allen E. Beach, for years the leading political writer of the Ohio State Journal and an expert in Republican politics from the newspaper standpoint, announced severance from his present employment, and the statement is made that he will assume charge of the publicity work of the new movement. In this way the bureau conducted by Lewis C. Laylin, chairman of the Republican State Executive committee of 1910, will be balanced, for it, too, has a publicity agent in the person of Clarence Maris, and carried on a systematic Taft propaganda.

National Committeeman Arthur I. Vorys has been acting with Mr. Laylin at these headquarters, to which the loyal Taft men in the organization have been summoned from time to time during the past three months. Chairman Briwn scrupulously denies connection with any headquarters of this character, and is equally insistent in the declaration that he is at the head of no organized movement. At the same time he makes no concealment of the fact that there is such a movement under way, and that he has been in consultation with those who are engaged in it regarding the selection of delegates in a number of the congressional districts.

In other words, there is a statewide movement, but it is not being directed by himself alone. From this deduction it is to be made that the organization at Cleveland, of which Nat C. Wright, Daniel R. Hanna and A. L. Garfield have been the directing spirits, has concluded to widen its scope and to link up with other organizations which will be formed in other sections of the state with a view to making the battle general and not local.

From statements made today it is to be expected that within a short time experienced Republican leaders, whose names will be their vouchers, will appear and take part in the work of sending a Roosevelt delegation to the National convention. Chairman Brown, to call him such in spite of his unwillingness to use the title, has been in correspondence with members of the organization generally and asserted that in this statement he is correct.

One of the matters under discussion has been the question of holding separate conventions for the nomination of a state ticket and of delegates-at-large to the National convention.

The formal launching of the Roosevelt movement may for the battle of appearances, be delayed until after the departure of President Taft from Ohio next week. The President is coming here to attend the McKinley banquet at Cleveland—now a hotbed of insurgency—on January 29, and will be entertained here on the day following going to Akron on his way back to Washington.

While here he will be the guest of the Republican Glee club at its annual dinner. Those in sympathy with the Roosevelt cause were last night talking of a counter demonstration, which would offset what they asserted was obviously an attempt to gain advantage for the President of Ohio.

It is, however, useless to disguise the fact that the fight is already begun and the President will smell the battle smoke the moment he crosses the state line from Pennsylvania next week.

It is well known that for weeks his friends have been sedulously at work upon the rousing of the organization especially the State Central committee. Scouting the present work, Warren G. Harding, the last nominee for Governor, has been vigorously shell ing the woods for Roosevelt scouts. If it is any satisfaction to him he can refresh himself with the fact that they have been discovered.

With this newer and greater development in view, the La Follette movement, seemingly so formidable a month ago, is now overshadowed. Chairman John D. Packler of Cleveland, its chief director, makes it clear that he is still for the Wisconsin candidate.

From his account of his visit to New York it is quite evident that there was a studied effort made to wean him away from that allegiance. He does not accuse the former President of any part in this transaction, and in this he is probably right.

This is what Chairman Packler said of his visit to Colonel Roosevelt last week:

"While in the East I had a talk with both Colonel Roosevelt and Senator La Follette. The attempt of certain newspapers to construe my visit to Colonel Roosevelt as an effort on his part to secure the support of the progressives of Ohio for himself away from Senator La Follette is absolutely unfounded. Nothing whatever was said by Colonel Roosevelt that could possibly be construed as even suggesting a change in my position of advocating the nomination of Senator La Follette."

"I shall not discuss my conversation with Colonel Roosevelt further than to say that he is not in any way to be charged with actively soliciting support for himself. The story that Colonel Roosevelt's supporters in Ohio had offered to contribute a large sum of money to the anti-Taft campaign in Ohio, if the friends of Senator La Follette would co-operate with them in securing anti-Taft delegates, is also absolutely unfounded."

"The fight to secure anti-Taft delegates in Ohio will be pushed with increasing vigor, and I confidently believe that the friends of Colonel Roosevelt and Senator La Follette will not allow those persons and interests hostile to both men to create division among their followers. The announcement by Senator Cummins of his own candidacy for the Presidency makes certain a solid delegation from Iowa opposed to the re-nomination of President Taft. No one can question Sen-

FARRELL'S PRICE TAKING DROP

Outfielder Fred Farrell of last year's Athletics has not been disposed yet by the Brooklyn club, according to reports from the Central League meeting at Grand Rapids last week.

It is reported that Larry Sutton, scout for the Brooklyn club, was offering the player to the magnates at the meeting for $700 which is $500 less than Ebbetts paid Zanesville for him.

Owner Watkins was dickering with Sutton, claiming that he wanted Farrell for his Indianapolis club.

It is further rumored that somebody was attempting to get Joe Raily back in the same part owner of a league club.

DAUGHTERS IN DANGER

Lack of Blood Now May Result in a Lifetime of Ill Health.

There must be no guesswork about the treatment of pale, anemic girls. If your daughter is languid, has a pale, sallow complexion, is short of breath, especially on going up stairs, has palpitation of the heart, a tendency to faint and a poor appetite, she has anemia or lack of blood. Mistakes or delay in the treatment may result in a permanent impairment of her health and she will be weak and sickly during the rest of her life.

Anemia is a loss of richness in the blood which cannot be made good without careful, intelligent treatment. The disease occurs in over-worked girls and in those who overstudy or are under some strain. It may also be inherited from the mother.

Words fail to express the benefit I have received from Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People," says Miss Margaret L. R. Shad, of No. 655 Franklin avenue, Pittsburg, Pa. "I was afflicted with anemia for eight years and became so weak and short of breath that I could hardly walk. My complexion was white and you could almost see through my ears, they were so transparent. I was so changed in appearance that acquaintances who did not know me at first, had to look at me through their fingers. I had no appetite and food distressed me so that I often had to vomit. There were sharp jabbing pains through my heart and I was sore across my chest and back. I was constipated and had severe headaches. There were sharp pains in my temples and back of the neck which were followed by nausea and dizziness. These dizzy spells came on suddenly and caused me to sit or lie down. I was treated by three doctors. Two called my trouble anemia, while the other said it might be green sickness. They did not help me, however, and I began to take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. I gave the pills a thorough trial and was entirely cured."

The most satisfactory way to give the blood the elements which it lacks is through Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. It is a thorough, persistent trial will make the blood pure and red. Two booklets, "Plain Talks to Women" and "Diseases of the Blood," will be sent free upon request.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists, or will be sent, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50c. per box; six boxes, $2.50, by the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y.

HUGH FLEMING DROPPED DEAD IN COURT HOUSE YARD

Well Known Citizen of East End Succumbs to Heart Trouble Tuesday Afternoon.

Hugh Fleming, a well known resident of the East End, residing with his wife at 94 Cedar street, dropped dead at the northwest corner of the court house about 1:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. He was seen to fall to the ground by several men, among them being George Bader and Verne Peterson, who ran to his assistance and carried him into the office of Surveyor Oully, in the basement of the court house.

A physician was called, but it was at once seen that he was beyond all earthly help, and died almost immediately. Dr. D. H. Miller, son-in-law of the deceased, was notified and arrived at the scene in a few minutes. The coroner was also notified. His death is thought to be due to heart trouble.

Mr. Fleming had been a resident of Newark for the past 17 years, during which time he had carried on the undertaking business in the East End. He was a veteran of the civil war and won a record to be proud of. He was a prisoner in Andersonville prison and suffered all the horrors of that prison pen. During his residence in Newark he had the confidence and esteem of all with whom he came in contact and was a model citizen.

He is survived by his widow and one daughter, Mrs. D. H. Miller.

CRITICAL TIME OF WOMAN'S LIFE

From 40 to 50 Years of Age. How It May Be Passed in Safety.

Odd, Va.:—"I am enjoying better health than I have for 20 years, and I believe I can safely say now that I am a well woman. I was reared on a farm and had all kinds of heavy work to do which caused the troubles that came on me later. For five years during the Change of Life I was not able to lift a pail of water. I had hemorrhages which would last for weeks and I was not able to sit up in bed. I suffered a great deal with my back and was so nervous I could scarcely sleep at night, and I did not do any housework for three years."

"Now I can do as much work as any woman of my age in the county, thanks to the benefit I have received from Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I recommend your remedies to all suffering women."—Mrs. MARTHA L. HOLLOWAY, Odd, Va.

No other medicine for woman's ills has received such wide-spread and unqualified endorsement. We know of no other medicine which has such a record of success as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. For more than 30 years it has been the standard remedy for woman's ills.

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

THE SEASON OF LACE.

This like the winter, is to be a season of laces, the great authorities on fashion state. Scarcely a frock is fashioned nowadays without its touch of lace somewhere on both the bodice and skirt. Wide bands of Venice are applied across the front of the bodice of the low cut evening frock, the surplice drapery of chiffon, embroidered net or jewel embroidery half concealing it except in the V-shaped vest in front and back. Bands of the same lace also outline the tunic or are applied to the satin drop just below the knee-length tunic. Chantilly, exquisitely fine and soft, is often employed for an entire frock, the skirt being formed of several flounces of the lace slightly gathered and set on the drop-skirt style above the other. —Harper's Bazar.

BUILDING UP A RUNDOWN FARM

James Hemphill of Scioto county, owns an old-gravelly farm which a few years ago was so run down that it was a common remark among the neighbors that "the old Hemphill farm is too poor to sprout beans." The place had been handed down to father and son, but the son did not follow in the footsteps of his father. He began to study methods of improving his farm. Although not able to attend an agricultural college, he read all bulletins from the state experiment station and College of Agriculture, attended farmers' institutes and other meetings, gathering information that would be helpful to him in his business. By putting this information into practice in the way of good cultivation, the proper utilization of barnyard manure and the judicious buying and use of commercial fertilizers, Mr. Hemphill has brought up the soil on this old farm to a good state of fertility. Last fall he had six acres of tobacco that gave a gross return of $600. And this on land that only a few years before wouldn't "sprout beans."

AMUSEMENTS

Press Agent Says:

"ALMA WHERE DO YOU LIVE?" Rubinstein said, "Eternal sunshine in music, thy name is Mozart," and one might say the same of Jean Briquet, composer of the brilliant "Alma, Where Do You Live?" for his score is full of the spirit and sparkle of sunshine. In the charming valse from which the play derives its name, Alma's brightness, her sparkling gaiety and her magnetic charm are all most happily displayed. The theme enchants the ear as Alma herself enchants the eye and in its short, concise phrasing one can detect even the practical as well as the attractive characteristics of the girl and her sensible business way of treating her would-be lovers. The leading feature of the Alma valse is that it is neither dreamy or emotional, but the happy, melodious expressions of a joyous, sensible girl. The opera has been booked to play the Auditorium tonight, and lovers of good music should not miss the opportunity of hearing this little classic.

HENRIETTA CROSMAN

The little blind god was not such a fool as he is generally counted when he made "the young man's fancy" demand beauty first in his life's partner, with as much brain cargo as he could get therewith, as after consideration. If the husband in "The Real Thing," the comedy that Henrietta Crosman will present here on Friday night, Jan. 26, had not got so much duty when he picked his wife for beauty, he would not have been so unhappy and felt so deserted.

THOMAS JEFFERSON IN "RIP VAN WINKLE."

Thomas Jefferson will play "Rip Van Winkle" at the Auditorium, Saturday, matinee and night. This unrivaled actor of the sweetest and most whole-some as well as the most idealistic character known to the modern stage, has lost none of his fervor, skill and enthusiasm, and his portrayal of "Rip Van Winkle" has all the attractiveness, charm and impressive beauty that he showed when he was first winning renown in it. Thomas Jefferson is an artist whose work shows no trace of an imitation in it. There is always infinite vivacity and variety, too, and although it be the thousandth time one were witnessing his performance, it would still hold with the fascination and power of a new triumph. Mr. Jefferson is stirring his audience this season as happily and as satisfactorily as in the past, and that everybody who sees his "Rip Van Winkle" is at once impressed with its wonderful quaintness, humanity and humor.

THE ORPHEUM.

One of the most wonderful treats ever enjoyed by the Orpheum patrons was presented to them yesterday by the Great Salambo and Olivettes. They offer a spectacular electrical turn that is simply wonderful—transmitting electrical waves through the air, juggling with dangerous looking electrical implements and blowing gassy bubbles from their mouths that immediately burn when in contact with a lighted candle. One thing long to be remembered by those who witnessed their act was the wonderful way they blew massive flames of fire from their mouths. The Salambos will be here three days of this week only, but they are sure to attract wide-spread attention during their short stay. Hurst and Kelley did some excellent work in the singing and talking line, which was highly appreciated. Their line is all new and mostly one of comedy. They are neatly dressed and have their special scenery which helps to make a very pleasing act. Hal Johnson, late star of "The Arrival of Kitty" and "The Girl Who Went," is also here, supported by Dale Devereaux, Jr., and Arthur Rowland and is offering an excellent little playlet entitled "The Chap in the Petticoats." These three clever people kept their audiences in one continuous uproar, every minute introducing some side-splitting laugh. Robert Wingate, the champion bone player of the world also made a big hit with his excellent work. It was known that he was a star, but it seemed that so much was not expected of him. Judging from the continuous applause he more than made good. The Orpheumscope has a new licensed film. Don't forget the five reels of high class motion pictures every Sunday, continuums from 1:30 to 10:30 p. m.

Smells Like Good Coffee!
Tastes Like Good Coffee!
But Has Not One of the Bad Effects of Coffee

Here at last is the drink for everybody who likes the taste of good coffee. It is especially for those who know that coffee hurts them.

This perfect coffee substitute is called Fitch's GRAINS OF HEALTH. Remember the name—Fitch's GRAINS OF HEALTH. There's nothing else on the market like it.

Fitch's GRAINS OF HEALTH is not a tasteless cereal drink—not a vile-tasting decoction. It is a real drink, with all the tempting fragrance—all the satisfying flavor—of the finest coffee.

And not a headache—not a pang—not a moment's regret in it.

No matter how sensitive your stomach, Fitch's GRAINS OF HEALTH is good for you. Drink all you want of Fitch's GRAINS OF HEALTH. It won't hurt you. It will help you.

Fitch's Grains of Health

The Coffee Substitute With the Coffee Taste

It took fourteen years to perfect Fitch's GRAINS OF HEALTH—the first real coffee substitute. Brilliant chemists joined their labors with coffee experts from the great plantations—men who have had a lifetime of experience with coffee—who know coffee from the seed to the cup.

They had a big idea. It was not to find something to take the place of coffee—but how to treat coffee so that the harm would be left out and the matchless taste and flavor kept in.

A Fascinating Story of Science and Perseverance

Everybody knows that the principle in coffee which causes all the harm is Caffeine. It is caffeine that affects the heart. Enough caffeine can be taken to arrest the heart.

How to neutralize or take out the caffeine without destroying the coffee taste was the task of these chemists and coffee experts.

They succeeded. They did more! They added natural health-building elements that correct ills of the digestive system and tone up the entire system. The perfected result is Fitch's GRAINS OF HEALTH.

It is a very simple combination. Test it as you will, you won't find one thing detrimental to health.

Fitch's GRAINS OF HEALTH has a special high-grade blend of coffee in it—but so combined with herbs, roots and vegetables that the caffeine is counteracted.

Even children can drink all they want of it without the least bad effect.

Note the Good Effects of Fitch's Grains of Health

The herbs, roots and vegetables in Fitch's GRAINS OF HEALTH give it a positive remedial effect.

We have multitudes of testimonials—some from distinguished physicians—to show that Fitch's GRAINS OF HEALTH speedily alleviates Indigestion, Heartburn, Sour Stomach, Bileousness, Sick Headache, Constipation, etc.

One of the ill effects of coffee drinking is constipation.

If your grocer cannot supply you, write us, mentioning his name, and we will send you a generous sample package of Fitch's GRAINS OF HEALTH (enough to serve a large family at breakfast) and a booklet telling you all about Fitch's GRAINS OF HEALTH. Enclose 6 cents in stamps for postage.

"Loving Babies to Death."
Dr. Walter Bessel of the New York city department of child hygiene says that it would be better for a baby never to kiss it or even to handle it except when necessary. But if a baby is properly taken care of in other ways a moderate amount of caressing does no special harm. But children may be "loved to death" if by love is meant continual handling and dandling. Their whole nervous system is disorganized. "Suppose," says the doctor, "you take two kittens when the are very young and give them different treatments. Feed one properly, give it a comfortable place to sleep and then let it alone. Turn the other over to the mercies of several affectionate children. Kitten No. 1 will live, and kitten No. 2 will die. The result will be the same if you choose babies for the experiment."

Special reference is made to the operation of the telephone trust in Ohio, Kansas City and Salt Lake City.

M'KINLEY IS PLACED IN A PADDED CELL

Columbus, Jan. 23.—Edward McKinley, one of the three men arrested a week ago last Sunday for the murder of Fannie Hagelgans at Orient three years ago, but not indicted by the Pickaway grand jury which reported last Saturday, is now a raving maniac in the Franklin county jail.

Transferred from the Pickaway county jail Monday afternoon by Lawrence and Cashner, sheriff's deputies, McKinley was placed in the Franklin county jail in a padded cell. Coming to Columbus from Circleville on the electric car, McKinley battled with the officers, broke a window on the car and had the deputies practically exhausted when they arrived.

In the county jail Monday night McKinley emitted mad yells and piercing screams, cursing the authorities for holding him. He will be examined for lunacy Tuesday by Drs. W. D. Deuschle and E. E. Gaver.

Attorney John A. Egan of Dayton, who acted as counsel for Rodney J. Diegel, sergeant-at-arms of the senate, convicted of bribery, has been retained to help defend Henry Hagelgans at Circleville, where Hagelgans is held for murder in the first degree for the alleged killing of his sister, Fannie Hagelgans.

I asked old Skaggs, who deals in greens, if he had any first class beans. He struck an attitude and cried: "I'm pointing to my beans with pride. No man e'er gathred from the vine such all-fired lovely beans as mine! Seek through the world, go east or west, you'll find my beans are still the best. And when at last your spirit flies to roam the gardens of the skies, you'll find no beans, where hours sleep, as good as these I sell dirt cheap." I asked old Skaggs about his peas.

"You'll never find such peas as these," your come during the summer? They need you now, really need you, for they are facing death by starvation. With the snow and ice on the ground, it is almost impossible for them to obtain food. Bread crumbs, grain and water would be joyfully received by the birds, and the supplying to them of food occasionally would be an act of true mercy.

Granville people who are living in the South and Southwest and in Southern California, who read of the kind of weather we have been having here lately, are no doubt patting themselves on the back with considerable gusto. Those who are too busy or too far removed from opanlance to spend their winters in the land of flowers, where the color of the landscape never changes, can at least boast that they don't have to go anywhere for the sake of their health.

Miss Sarah Jenkins of Portsmouth, O., who has been visiting relatives and friends south of the village for some days, has returned home.

The following program was carried out at the last regular meeting of

He said, "and when it comes to squash, no man can rival me, I'gosh. Canned pumpkin? Well, that's where I shine! There's nothing half so good as mine, and this here cheese—oh, thunder, man! just find its equal if you can!" His trade is falling off, they say, and he'll go broke some winter day, for folks don't like to trade with Skaggs, who shows no judgment when he brags.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Lawton of near Muscatine, Iowa, who have been making an extended visit with relatives and old friends in this vicinity and in the southern part of the county, left for their home on Monday, after having had a most enjoyable visit.

As is usual with sudden changes of weather in the Ohio Valley, the people get the worst of it when it goes from cold to warm, and from warm to cold. This has been the case during the past two days. The accumulation of snow and ice was turned to slush Monday. Monday night it grew colder and Tuesday the slush had turned to ice, making it almost impossible to walk.

The Civic Improvement committee met at the home of Mrs. A. K. Follett Monday evening and talked over several matters. The society has done much for the improvement of Granville during the past several years.

A Permanent Cure For Chronic Constipation

Although these may dispute it who have not tried it yet thousands of others, who speak from personal experience, assert that there is a permanent cure for chronic constipation. Some testify they were cured for as little as fifty cents, years ago, and that the trouble never came back on them, while others admit they took several bottles before a steady cure was brought about.

The remedy referred to is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It has been on the market for over a quarter of a century and has been popularized on its merits by one person telling another. The fact that its strongest supporters are women and elderly people—the ones most persistently constipated—makes it certain that the claims regarding it as a permanent cure for constipation have not been exaggerated.

It is not violent like cathartic pills, salts or waters, but operates gently, without griping and without shock to the system. It contains tonic properties that strengthen the stomach and bowel muscles so that in time medicines of all kinds can be dispensed with and nature is again solely relied on. Among the legions who testify to these facts are Mr. Z. L. Smith, Steubenville, Ohio, and Mrs. Gen. W. Wilson, 1236 Wesley Ave., Columbus, Ohio, and they always have a bottle of it in the house, for it is a reliable laxative for all the family from infancy to old age.

Anyone wishing to make a trial of this remedy before buying it in the regular way of a druggist at fifty cents or one dollar a large bottle (family size) can have a sample bottle sent to the home free of charge by simply addressing Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 405 Washington St., Monticello, Ill. Your name and address on a postal card will do.

SUFFERED AGONY WITH ITCHING

And Burning. Sores Like Boils All Over Body. Parts of Flesh Raw. Could Scarcely Bear Clothes On. Nearly Worn Out When He Tried Cuticura Remedies and Was Cured.

"About four years ago I broke out with sores on my arms like boils. After two months they were all over my body, some coming, and some going away. In about six months the boils quit, but my arms, neck and body broke out with an itching, burning rash. It would burn and itch, and come out in pimples like grains of wheat. I was in a terrible condition. I could not sleep or rest. Parts of my flesh were raw, and I could scarcely bear my clothes on. I could not lie in bed in any position and rest. In about a year this sores extended down to my feet. Then I suffered agony with the burning, itching sores. I could hardly walk and for a long time I could not put on socks.

"All this time I was trying everything I could hear of, and had the skill of three doctors. They said it was eczema. I got no benefit from all this. I was nearly worn out, and had given up in despair of ever being cured when I was advised by a friend to try Cuticura Remedies. I purchased Cuticura Soap, Ointment, and Resolvent, and used exactly as directed. I used the Cuticura Remedies constantly for four months, and nothing else, and was perfectly cured. It is now a year, and I have not had the least bit since. I am ready to praise the Cuticura Remedies at any time." (Signed) E. L. Cate, Erie, Ky., Nov. 10, 1910.

The center piece at the large table was a basket of choice fruits. The guests were seated by place cards and the dinner was served in courses. After dinner the remainder of the evening was spent in games and music rendered by several of the guests.

A SKIN TIGHTENER TO REDUCE WRINKLES

(From Popular Medicine.)
In beauty culture, as in the treatment of disease, the tendency nowadays is to seek the removal of causes rather than to treat symptoms or effects. In the matter of wrinkles, for instance, we know that the lines or furrows are caused by the skin becoming loose in places so it does not perfectly fit the flesh beneath. The skin then "wrinkles" or sags. Naturally the proper thing to do is to tighten the skin—make it fit—then there's no room for lines, wrinkles and folks, and no surplus skin to sag or bag.

The best known formula for the purpose is: Saxolite, 1 oz., in 1-2 pint witch hazel. Use as a wash lotion. The effect is truly remarkable, especially as results are immediate. Ask the druggist for the powdered saxolite, which dissolves more quickly than any other form.

Lots of people talk too much and say too little.

HEART AND HOME TALKS
BY BARBARA BOYD

Enough to Get Married On.

A GROUP of young men were discussing marriage.
"You can get married," said one, "if you've got enough not to go broke."

But the question is, how much is "enough not to go broke?" A young man buying some things in a little corner grocery store exhibited to the grocer, when he had paid his bill, 37 cents. "That's all I have left," he said, smilingly, "and we are just married."

That's one extreme. At the other end is the man who will not get married until he has a large bank account; and who works and saves while the years slip by, and the desire for marriage grows less, and bachelor habits fasten upon him, until if he does get married, he is by no means an easy proposition to live with.

The man with 37 cents is probably not thinking about going broke, or perhaps, he is quite sure he will go broke and doesn't care. But the other man is certainly thinking about the prospect of going broke and is taking exceeding care not to, perhaps such care that he will never get married.

Where then shall the mean be fixed?
For the young man was quite right. You certainly want enough, if you can secure it, not to go broke. If a prosperous matrimonial voyage is desired, it is only a matter of sense to provide the wherewithal to run the ship.

If this young man, who had an assured position with an old and honored corporation, married a girl of extravagant tastes, or one whose past method of living was beyond what his salary could afford, he might go broke, even though he thought he was secure against the catastrophe.

So some things are to be looked to, in spite of the present earning power or bank account.

The sensible man who is earning a small salary is apt to look more carefully over the economic side of marriage than is the man who is earning a fairly good salary. Of the two, the man of more than modest means and position is more likely to "go broke," for he will want to live with a certain degree of style, he will probably marry a society girl, and no reflection is meant by this, but simply a girl accustomed to fashionable dress, to gay social life, and who knows little of actual housekeeping. And the salary that seemed sufficient will melt away so amazingly, that it will seem as if some uncanny magic is at work consuming it.

So the question of "enough not to go broke," really needs to be considered most carefully. It may seem exceedingly sordid to obtrude the question of money into the beautiful dream of love. But if the dream of love is not to vanish, or at least be shattered in many of its most beautiful parts, the twain want to consider very carefully the financial side of marriage.

It is not sufficient to think in a general way of having enough not to go broke. The two should study the problem of just how they want to live, of what the cost of dress and society and other pleasures will be, should they continue on the same path, when together, as they did individually—and they will probably want to do this, though few think of the cost of it. They need to study sensibly the question of health, for sickness is a terrible devourer of money. And though it seems today that we need not be sick, if we will just keep the right mental attitude, some of us are not able to bring our minds where they ought to be in this matter, so sickness has to be reckoned with.

So when deciding you have enough not to go broke, look carefully at all these things. For people today do not endure, as they once did, the hardships of an insufficient income. The path to the divorce court is less trying. And then comes bitterness, cynicism, pessimism, and a bias view of life.

How a Little Knowledge Helped.

An excellent illustration of how a little agricultural knowledge, rightly applied, will give results, has just been brought to the notice of the College of Agriculture, Ohio State University. J. V. Stocklein of Athens, county, owns a 15-acre apple orchard, 16 years old, from which he had received no return until last year. The orchard is situated on hill ground. Land of like quality in Athens and adjoining counties can be bought for $10 to $20 per acre. Mr. Stocklein attended a lecture given on a special horticultural train that ran through his county and heard about the proper care of fruit trees. He determined to put into practice some of the things he heard. He pruned, sprayed and mulched his trees, and in the fall of 1911 he harvested 4000 bushels of fruit, principally Rome Beauty, Ben Davis and Baldwin. He handled his crop in bushel crates and with the addition of a storage plant of his own he placed himself in a position to realize top notch prices for his crop.

RED ITCHING SKIN

LIKELY TO BE FIRST STAGE OF ECZEMA—WHAT TO DO.
Try This Remedy at Our Risk.

When the skin of face or body feels hot, drawn and irritable, it is likely to break out with small watery pimples accompanied by violent itching. This is one form of eczema, and should be attended to at once.

In all our experience we have never found anything to give such uniformly good results in skin troubles and eruptions, whether acute or chronic, as our new skin remedy, Saxon Salve. Besides allaying the frightful itching almost soon as applied, it sinks into the skin like water into a sponge and thus completely envelops the diseased portion with its powerful healing and soothing ingredients. Improvement is seen in a very short time, and the skin is rendered soft and smooth again.

We cheerfully give back your money if Saxon Salve is not satisfactory. F. D. Hall, druggist, Newark, O.

I am looking for Love.
Has he passed this way
With eyes as blue as the skies of May,
And a face as fair as the summer

You answer back, but I wander on,
For you say: Oh yes, but his eyes
were gray,
And his face as dim as a rainy day.
But stout of heart will I onward
fare,
Knowing my Love is beyond-somewhere.
The Love I seek, with the eyes

And on from the hour his trail is found
I shall sing sonnets the whole

Daddy's Bedtime

Father Christmas
Looks After the Holiday Weather

"I HOPE we shall not have a green Christmas," said daddy. "What do you mean, daddy? We didn't know Christmases had colors," said Evelyn.

"Well, when we say a green Christmas we mean a very mild one without snow. We call a snowy Christmas a white one."

"Why don't we have a nice snowy Christmas every year? I like lots of snow in winter," spoke Jack.

"Once upon a time there was a very snowy Christmas, and it happened this way, so I've heard. The snow king, who works for Father Christmas, used to send out his head elf to get orders for the kinds of Christmases that people wanted. One year when the little elf called the people said they wanted a nice mild Christmas, as there had been enough snow and cold the year before. At the next place folks said the same. And so it went on as the elf took the orders for Christmas weather until when he had finished there was only one place that asked for a white Christmas.

"This doesn't suit me," growled the snow king when he heard of this. "I have a large force of elves, and I have to keep them all busy."

"But Father Christmas said he meant to oblige folks if he could."

"The snow king was a trifle offended. 'Well,' he said, 'when my elves get busy I guess you'll know about it.'"

"The day before Christmas the snow king told his elves they could start to work in the place where snow had been called for."

"Fast as lightning the elves flew through the air. They began shaking down the flakes from their cornucopias of snow. First they fell slowly and softly. Then they came faster and faster.

"Hurrah!" cried the boys. "Now we'll have sledding!"

"Hurrah!" cried the grownups. "Now we'll have sleighing."

"And the snow kept on coming down, for the snow king had all his elves at work there, and they are very industrious little elves. Soon the snow was as high as the boys' shoe tops. Then it came up to their knees. It wasn't long until the snow was waist high, and then people began to stay indoors and wonder what kind of Christmas they were going to have anyway. It never stopped snowing until Santa came round at night and couldn't get down the chimneys because the roofs were so blocked with snow. He sent a message to Father Christmas to stop it.

"Well, those folks had to spend Christmas digging paths out of snowbound houses.

"And since then Father Christmas prefers to send the weather around as he thinks best."

Dickmeis stated that one of the party of colored people who appeared against him, pushed him from his machine and injured him, besides damaging his motor.

ABE MARTIN SAYS:

Nobody ever tried to act surprised an' got away with it. The feller that jumps at conclusions allus lights on his neck. I don't know whether cigarettes are doped or not, but I do know a feller kin set clean this' a show without smokin' a pipe.

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts on the blood and cleanses the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio. Sold by druggists, 75c.

EDUCATION.

But the physical life, necessary as it is, is only a foundation for the intellectual life. The right government for us, the righteous government, is the one that not only protects but develops our life, not only safeguards its quantity, but its quality; not only sees to it that we feed our bodies with bread, but that we feed our minds with knowledge. There can be no gainsaying this thesis, for the proudest boast of every American citizen is the splendid efficiency and universality of our American public schools. The plainest man recognizes that as the shop unwatched is best guarded by a light so the republic needs but little vigilance that is sentinelled by intelligence. We have a right to brains as well as bread.—Rabbi Leon Harrison.

Use of Powders in History.

The primary use of powders was for the adornment of the hair, dyes, and powders of blue, red and green being affected by the Saxons in place of the gold dust with which Jews and Romans were wont to sprinkle their locks. Later wheaten flour and rice powder were adopted, both for hair and face, and these were not introduced into England until later Plantagenet days, when a very decided change in dress made itself apparent.

Mustard's Quick Relief Without the Blister!

You remember the good old-fashioned mustard plaster.

Your mother and your grandmother used to apply it whenever you had a cold, an ache or a pain.

It burned like sixty, but it surely did the work.

Here is the old family remedy, greatly improved by science and put in Twentieth Century form—

THE QUICK AND BLESSED RELIEF WITHOUT THE BLISTER OF THE MUSTARD, OR THE BOTHER AND MESSINESS OF THE PLASTER.

MUSTEROLE is a clean, white ointment, made with the oil of mustard. For MUSTEROLE, the oil of the highest grade of mustard is refined until it is as pure as human skill can make it.

You simply rub it on the spot where the pain is—rub it on briskly—and the pain is gone!

Not a blister is left even on tender skin! Instead it has a delicious, comforting effect.

You don't have to spread MUSTEROLE on a cloth. Just apply it with the finger tips.

You don't have to bind on a cloth. MUSTEROLE is so penetrating that it goes right through the pores at once.

And there is nothing like MUSTEROLE for Sore Throat, Bronchitis, Tonsillitis, Croup, Stiff Neck, Asthma, Neuralgia, Headache, Congestion, Pleurisy, Rheumatism, Lumbago, Pains and Aches of the Back or Joints, Sprains, Sore Muscles, Bruises, Chilblains, Frosted Feet, Colds of the Chest (it prevents Pneumonia).

MUSTEROLE is for sale by leading druggists everywhere. Accept no substitute.

Many of these display the MUSTEROLE sign (shown below) in their windows.

MUSTEROLE comes in jars of two sizes, 25c and 50c.

If your druggist cannot supply you, send 25c and we will send you a jar postage prepaid.

My sister was suffering from Neuralgia and I from Rheumatism; MUSTEROLE relieved us completely.

PRESIDENT WORKING ON THE JUDICIARY

Washington, Jan. 23.—President Taft is working on judicial appointments. There are nearly a dozen vacancies in the various federal courts. Mr. Taft proposes to make the nominations for these positions at the same time he sends in the supreme court nomination to fill the judgeship left open by the death of Associate Justice Lamar.

That he will offer the name of Judge Hook to the senate is a foregone conclusion, notwithstanding that protests continue to reach the White House against that jurist.

KILLED WALKING ON TRACK

Canal Dover, Jan. 23.—While walking on the B. & O. railroad track at Strasburg, Frank Schutzbaugh, 65, was struck by a train and almost instantly killed. His neck was broken. He was the father of Dr. J. C. Schutzbaugh of Strasburg.

COMPLEXIONS FLAKED OFF AT HOME

(From Pilgrim Magazine.) The girl with the poor complexion complains, "I have to touch up my cheeks. I am sallow and a sight and only my makeup saves me." Now, as a matter of fact, more women spoil their good looks than improve them with cosmetics. The practice is certainly inexcusable, now that the virtues of ordinary mercurized wax have become known. The mercuride in the wax has wonderful absorbent powers. It causes the faded or discolored skin to flake off in minute, almost imperceptible particles, so gently, gradually, as to cause no inconvenience at all. In this way the old complexion is actually removed—likewise all freckles, pimples, blotches, moth patches or other surface defects. A new complexion appears—a clear, smooth, youthful, healthy-hued skin such as no paint, powder or lotion can produce. An ounce of mercurized wax, to be had at any drug store, is sufficient. It is applied like cold cream.

STAFF OFFICERS MEETING IN CITY

A meeting of the staff officers of the Newark division of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad is being held in the office of Superintendent Irwin today. The staff includes the trainmaster and assistant trainmasters, road foreman of engines, master mechanic, division engineer, chief train dispatcher and division operator, and matters for the good of the service were discussed.

erves which are entirely active at this time. It may be stated, the report adds, "as a notorious and incontrovertible fact, that the price of Lake Superior ore during the greater part of the period 1902 to 1906, and indeed back to 1895, had been established in large measure by agreement among the principal ore producing interests."

The excessive profits on ore, the report says, handicap effective competition in the production of pig iron and steel by concerns which must go into the open market for their ore.

The transportation profit of 60 cents a ton realized by the Steel Corporation on its own ore, over its principal ore-carrying railroads and in lake vessels from 1902 to 1906 was "grossly excessive," the report alleges. As evidence of this, it is added, the corporation recently reduced the rates on its two principal ore roads.

"It is safe to assume," the report continues, "that the present reduced rate of 60 cents per ton is still excessive."

The report adds:

"While integration of industry to permit of large-scale operations at minimum costs is exceedingly desirable, these enormous profits of the Steel Corporation on the transportation of ore present a problem of very great importance."

"The situation is this: Integration of the steel industry with respect to transportation thus far, instead of working to the advantage of the public in the form of lower costs to all shippers and lower prices, has insured to the benefit of a great combination. On the other hand, to let the Steel Corporation retain this advantage of low transportation cost, and to let this work itself out in the form of lower prices might be undesirable, because it would tend to give the Steel Corporation an unreasonable and undesirable advantage over competitors in the sale of finished products."

"This situation clearly raises the question whether the interests of the public may not require the segregation of these railroad properties from the Steel Corporation. It would thus stop what is unquestionably an evil and the imposition of high rates upon competitors' shipments, which puts them at a great disadvantage, while at the same time forcing them, by reason of this very fact, to contribute unduly to the profits of the Steel Corporation's transportation. "While in the case of integration of ordinary manufacturing enterprises it may be entirely proper that the most aggressive concern should reap the benefit of its enterprise, it is unquestionably different in the case of a public utility such, for instance, as a railroad. Competition in the construction of railroads is often impracticable. Moreover, the important ore railroads of the Steel Corporation were obtained not through superior ability, efficiency or foresight, but simply through superior command of capital, as a result of combination."

Citing steel rails, the report shows the cost of manufacture from the raw material to the finished article in a comparison between the book cost of the corporations, which includes the intercompany profits, and the actual cost. The commissioner emphasizes the fact, however, that the reasonableness of profit in this connection must be determined in connection with the total investment of an integrated company.

After going through the various stages of intercompany treatment, the book cost on heavy bessemer rails was $21.27. The intermediate profits were $2.47, making the revised cost $18.80. "The total difference is thus a very considerable amount," the commissioner adds. The price of bessemer steel rails, the report says, has been fixed for more than ten years at about $28 a ton. It is roughly estimated, according to this, that the profit on rails thus equals from 11 to 17 per cent of the investment.

ICE GORGE IN WALHONDING.

Cashocton, Jan. 23.—An ice gorge in the Walhonding river, near here, threatens the Denman bridge, and preparations are being made to explode a charge of dynamite in the ice pack to relieve the pressure if the conditions grow worse. The ice has packed until it extends high above the bridge.

Why Salves Can't Cure Eczema

Since the old-fashioned theory of curing eczema through the blood has been given up by scientists, many different salves have been tried for skin diseases. But it has been found that these salves only clog the pores and cannot penetrate to the inner skin below the epidermis where the eczema germs are lodged. This—the quality of penetrating—probably explains the tremendous success of the well known liquid eczema remedy, oil of wintergreen, thymol, glycerine, etc., as compounded in D.D.D. Prescription. We have sold other remedies for skin troubles but none that we can recommend as highly as this for we know that D.D.D. stops the itch at once. We can give you a trial size bottle for 25 cents that will be enough to prove it. Of course all other druggists have D.D.D. Prescription—go to them if you can't come to us—but don't accept some big profit substitute. But if you come to our store, we are so certain of what D.D.D. will do for you that we offer you a full-size bottle on this guarantee:—If you do not find that it takes away the itch AT ONCE, it costs you not a cent.

MINSTREL FUN FOR HICCOUGHING GIRL THE LAST REMEDY

Has Suffered for 17 Days and Brought Cure Artists Will Endeavor to Cure Her.

Camden, N. J., Jan. 23. — Miss Mary Shinn, 17 years old, has been hicoughing almost continuously for 17 days. Naturally she is very anxious to stop it, for it is extremely wearying. Her mother and her friends also desire strongly that she stop hicoughing. A most attractive girl, she is becoming thin, pale and nervous.

There is a home tradition that if you frighten a person who is hicoughing, scare the breath out of him — or her — the hicoughs will stop. Many and novel methods have been adopted to scare Miss Mary and she has been dreadfully scared — but she has continued to hicough. Now her mother is going to try to make Miss Mary laugh so heartily that she will forget the hicoughs.

Miss Shinn has asked the members of the old Dumont Minstrel Co. to come to her house and give a show. Miss Mary dotes on minstrel shows and her mother fondly hopes she will be thrown into such convulsions of laughter that the hicoughs will go away.

Miss Mary, who lives at No. 125 North Twenty-fourth street, here, enjoyed a meal on Jan. 5 last. Immediately after it she began to hicough. Everybody knows that hicoughing is involuntary. You cannot will to stop it. Any pathologist or physiologist will tell you that a hicough is a short, sharp, clicking or catching sound, due to the sudden arrest of breathing by a momentary spasmodic contraction of the diaphragm and a simultaneous contraction of the windpipe. And that's what's the matter with Miss Mary. At brief and distant intervals she stops hicoughing and then starts again.

To frighten her a relative crept up behind her and fired a revolver. She jumped and shrieked—then went on hicoughing.

Her nights are almost sleepless, so this same relative got a mask and dark lantern and played burglar. He tiptoed into Miss Mary's bedroom, which is kept very dark in the hope that she will sleep, and flashed the dark lantern in her wakeful eyes and put his masked face close to hers. A hicough cut short the terrified scream that she emitted.

Then, for her sake of course, her kinsmen tried another method which it is safe to say is not mentioned in any medical treatise on hicoughing. A couple of them pretended to get furiously angry with Miss Mary. After working themselves up to a seeming paroxysm of rage, they seized the girl, dragged her to a third-story window, raised the window, lifted her off her feet and swore they would throw her out. Her yells could be heard for blocks. When her kindly relatives released her, she sat in a chair panting—and hicoughing.

These and other such domestic remedies having failed, Mrs. Shinn called physicians to Miss Mary. They prescribed all sorts of sedatives; if the drugs had only acted Miss Mary would be the most sedate young woman in all New Jersey. The physicians gave her the most powerful medicines, such as amyl nitrite, which is prescribed in asthma and angina pectoris. They even gave her hydrocyanic acid—of course in minute doses—and that is given to check the racking cough of pulmonary tuberculosis.

Finally her mother, almost in despair, betthought herself of the girl's fondness for minstrel shows, often she has laughed until she cried at the jokes and antics of the black-faced comedians. So the Dumont minstrel troupe will go to her home today and try to cure the spasms of hicoughing with spasms of laughter.

A Girl's Wild Midnight Ride.
To warn people of a fearful forest fire in the Catskills a young girl rode horseback at midnight and saved many lives. Her deed was glorious but lives are often saved by Dr. King's New Discovery in curing lung trouble, coughs and colds, which might have ended in consumption or pneumonia. "It cured me of a dreadful cough and lung disease," writes W. R. Patterson, Wellington, Tex., "after four in our family had died with consumption, and I gained 87 pounds." Nothing so sure and safe for all throat and lung trouble. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by F. D. Hall.

WARNING OF INJURED MAN SAVES LIVES

Toledo, O., Jan. 23. — "Stand back, boys, don't bring any lights near the gasoline," was the warning of Roy A. Browning, 33 years old, a funeral director, shouted to hundreds of spectators who saw him wedged between two street cars last evening, his right lung penetrated by a broken rib.

The automobile in which Browning and his wife were seated was crushed between two cars. Browning was rolled along between the two cars as if he were a ball. His wife escaped injury.

The gasoline tank on the automobile was wrecked, and, when a fuse in one of the street cars blew out, an explosion followed, wrecking the street cars and putting many spectators in danger. Browning's condition is regarded as critical.

QUARREL

In Marion (O.) Church By Whites and Blacks Results in a "Rough House."

Marion, O., Jan. 23.—That it is a soul-trying proposition to run a church of a mixed white and black congregation, with the blacks favoring a mission form of worship, was the declaration of Rev. Leroy Mitchell of Wesleyan Methodist church, when he filed affidavits against nine members of his flock for disturbing a religious meeting.

According to Rev. Mr. Mitchell, trouble has been brewing since last November, when he was appointed pastor of the newly organized church here. The negro members opposed changing from a mission.

Sunday evening when the pastor was announcing his text, Presley Wingo and others began singing and shouting. The meeting ended in a row.

Those arrested and released on $100 bond each were Goldie Black, Della Fralich and Mattie Welch, white; Presley Wingo, his son and two daughters, Della Cramer and Adolphus Ricks, negroes. They will be arraigned Wednesday. The congregation is now split wide open.

RAY FARRION BOUND OVER TO GRAND JURY

Ray Farrion was brought to Newark from Coshocton Monday night on a charge of criminal assault preferred by the father of Anna Murry, the young girl who was held yesterday on a charge of obtaining goods under false pretenses. Farrion was bound over to the common pleas court on the charge. He failed to furnish bond in the sum of $300. The Murry girl claims that Farrion induced her to join him in an "aerial" vaudeville act, and declared that he had engagements booked to keep them busy for several weeks.

The Noted Bishop of Michigan at Trinity Church Parish House

On Wednesday evening of this week, The Rt. Rev. Charles D. Williams, D. D., bishop of Michigan, will deliver a public address in Trinity church parish house, under the auspices of the Men's Club of Trinity Church.

Bishop Williams is famous the country over, not only for his clear thinking and eloquence, but for his practical interest in social work and problems. When Dean of Trinity Cathedral, Cleveland, Ohio, he was one of the leaders in all movements for civic betterment and social uplift.

His books and magazine articles proclaim him a profound scholar, a clear and logical thinker who expresses his thoughts in crisp understandable English, and one who has a firm grasp of the right principles which underlie a happy social life.

On Wednesday evening, he will speak on "Single Tax," beginning promptly at 7:45. To this meeting, the public is cordially invited.

The Hon. E. W. Doty, one of the Cleveland members of the Constitutional Convention and chairman of the Committee on Taxation in the convention, will introduce the bishop.

THE MODERN HEAD DRESS

Causes Baldness—We Cannot Change the Head Dress, But We Can Prevent Baldness.

Up to the time we began to civilize him a bald headed Indian was a thing unknown. Wearing nothing on his head except the covering furnished by nature and being a stranger to the use of a hair brush, especially the public one, the scalp and hair had plenty of ventilation, much sunlight and, hence, a condition favorable to a luxuriant growth of hair existed at all times.

It was the adoption of air and light excluding headgears and artificial head decorations generally together with the occasional use of a community hair brush, which gave the dandruff germ its opportunity. Since this parasite has multiplied to an alarming degree until now there is hardly a person who is not troubled more or less with dandruff and falling hair.

Many, to be sure, have passed the worrying stage. Having become chronically bald they realize that nothing is capable of producing natural hair for them. Let these be a warning to all who are experiencing a significant annoyance of dandruff and falling hair.

Dandruff, which is due to a germ, and falling hair can both be overcome by the regular use of Newbro's Herpicide.

This wonderful scalp remedy kills the vicious germ which causes dandruff, cleanses the scalp and stops the hair from coming out. The destruction of the germ permits the hair to grow naturally and luxuriantly as nature intends.

Herpicide makes the hair bright, snappy, light and fluffy. One dollar size bottles guaranteed. For sale at all drug stores.

Applications obtained at the better barber shops and hair dressing parlors.

Send 10c in stamps or silver for sample and booklet to The Herpicide Co., Dept. R., Detroit, Mich.

KNABE PIANO FACTORY TO BE REBUILT AT ONCE AND TO BE FIRE PROOF

Cincinnati, O., Jan. 23.—The Knabe Brothers' Company Piano factory, which was destroyed January 12th, of which company A. L. Rawlings of Newark is a stockholder and director, is to be rebuilt just as soon as the weather permits.

The company has received offers from a number of cities including the Newark, O., Board of Trade, but as the Knabe Bros' company owns the site of the old factory at Norwood, the officers have decided to rebuild there. They are planning to erect a modern fireproof concrete building and equip it with most modern machinery. The old factory was totally destroyed, but the scales and patterns were saved. Arrangements have been made for temporary factory space and piano making in this temporary factory is now in progress. The new Knabe Bros' Co. factory will be bigger and better than ever.

Mr. A. L. Rawlings, the Newark piano dealer, who is interested in the Knabe Bros' factory has several of the Knabe and Rawlings pianos on hand, shipment having been made before the fire. More pianos will soon come from the temporary factory. Mr. Rawlings recommends and guarantees these pianos. Being a manufacturer himself, he saves his customers the middlemen's profit. He sells for cash or upon easy payments. He has a few second hand pianos that will be disposed of at bargain prices. Before buying a piano see Mr. Rawlings. He will please you and his goods will give you satisfaction for years to come. The Rawlings prices are the lowest in town, quality of goods considered.

COUNTY LIBRARY MAY BE ESTABLISHED IN NEWARK

Institution Founded by John Brumback in Van Wert is Model—An Ideal Public Library System—Interesting Description of Plan.

The suggestion to establish in Newark a Licking County Public Library with branches in the several townships of the county is meeting with universal approval and the Licking county commissioners are being urged to make a levy of 1-10 of a mill to establish the County Library.

If the commissioners act favorably a fund of about $5,000 will be created with which to maintain the library. Then steps will be taken to secure a site and a suitable building.

According to the United States bureau of education this Ohio plan is ideal. An announcement describing the plan which it is hoped will be adopted in Licking county, says:

"Every inhabitant of the United States, no matter how far from the centers of population, will have practically as good library facilities as are now enjoyed by the average city dweller if plans for the establishment of a new type of book-distributing agency work out according to the anticipations of the United States commissioner of education, Dr. P. P. Claxton, who is personally interested in their development. As the rural population of the United States numbers about 55 per cent of the total population, the new library plan may have the effect of doubling the effectiveness of libraries and of raising the standard of culture in this country to a corresponding degree.

"The county library plan has already been put into successful operation in Van Wert county, O., where a main depository and fifteen branches are maintained at an expenditure of between $6,000 and $7,000 a year, this sum being raised by levying a half-mill county tax. The same appropriation also covered the cost last year of placing eighty-nine additional branch libraries in the public schools. Fourteen counties in Wisconsin are now enjoying similar facilities.

"Dr. Claxton says that his advocacy of the county library was based on his personal observation of the Brumback library of Van Wert county, O. The Brumback county library is the result of the will of the late John Brumback, who directed that $10,000 from his estate should be devoted to the erection and furnishing of a library building as a gift to Van Wert county, if the county would provide for its maintenance.

"Later Mr. Brumback's children and heirs increased this donation to $50,000. With the money realized from a county tax levy some 3,000 books were purchased in 1899 and these together with 1,600 others turned over by the merger of an existing library, formed the nucleus of the present collection.

"The library building erected by the Brumback estate was turned over to the county in 1901. It is a beautiful structure. The book stacks have a capacity of 25,000 volumes.

"This is the central depository for the county's system of branch libraries and school libraries. The branches are in charge of librarians who are paid $50 a year and are made responsible for the safe keeping of the books sent them. Rural merchants and postmasters are generally selected to conduct the branch libraries.

"The collections of books in their charge range from 100 to 150. Four times a year, or oftener, the branch librarians box up the books for which he is responsible and returns them to the central depository, receiving at once another collection.

"The books thus forwarded are not the arbitrary hit-or-miss selection of the head librarian, but conform to the desires of the local readers. Before any books are sent out the branch librarian receives a list of the titles in every available traveling collection. Each title is accompanied with a note explaining the character and contents of the books listed.

"The users of the branch library then discuss these lists, and the box of books which contains the greatest number of works that interests the greatest number of readers is the box called for. If the contents of no one box prove interesting to the neighborhood the main library will make up a special selection upon request. In this way the rural book lover can obtain practically any work he desires for which there is an appreciable call.

"A most valuable feature of the Brumback library's work is the establishment of loan collections for use in schools. These school libraries will be sent to any teacher who asks them, the selection being made by the teacher or by the librarian, as the borrower prefers. Although this school library department is only about four years old it has grown so rapidly that today all but about 40 of the 125 country school teachers in Van Wert county make use of its facilities.

"The selections which teachers may draw out for school use are as large as desired. Usually as many books are taken as there are children in the room. These school sets are exchanged sometimes twice a month, but usually once a term, the interval being fixed by the teacher.

"In this way books dealing with history, geography and biography have been made popular subjects of reading among the school children of Van Wert county. Nature studies and easy scientific books are also in demand, while fairy tales, myths and legends provide the children with an enjoyable introduction to literature.

"Occasionally members of school boards object to the introduction of library sets into the schools, on the ground that the children should give all their time to textbooks and the study of the three R's. However, it is the experience of a number of teachers that this supplementary reading has resulted in better schoolroom discipline and an increased interest in such subjects as geography and United States history.

"The work of the school library department or the Brumback library is now broadening in an unexpected direction, for the parents of school children are coming more and more to borrow from these loan collections, as well as from the formally constituted branch libraries. Thus Van Wert county provides that the whole world of books is brought to the very doorsteps of the remotest farmstead in its borders by a clearing house system of libraries which Commissioner Claxton wishes to see in equally successful operation throughout the United States."
